PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS

RHINELANDER HIGH SCHOOL

1940

Dedication

WE, the Class of 1940, sincerely dedicate our annual to Mr. Richard Marshall, who has so capably done everything he has undertaken in our high school.

Mr. Marshall was brought up in the city of Redgranite, Wisconsin and was educated at both Stevens Point Teachers College and the University of Wisconsin. For the past five years he has assisted our coach in helping the team attain its success, and has also aided the Hodag staff in its undertaking.

To show our appreciation of his efforts, we leave to him our 1940 HODAG.

Foreword

WE have chosen to use a "Circus" as the theme for our annual this year. We have compared our high school life with that of a circus, for who is not familiar with the ever-popular parade, side-show, and three-ring performance? We introduce the students and our teachers as the performers and trainers; under guidance we students have worked and played each day in such "rings" as classes, extra-curricular activities, and social gatherings.

Now as we Seniors leave these scenes of activities, which have been endeared to us by pleasant associations, it is our hope that each one will reveal himself as creditably in the wider fields of life as he has in our high school.

ADMINISTRATION

FIFTY YEARS

As time marches on, each personality makes an imprint or a contribution to help or to hinder the progress of society.

1890 to 1940 marks a period of progress in education for Rhinelander in that the facilities were increased to accommodate enrollments, faculties were enlarged, and budgets were expanded to provide the means. The one-room school of 1882 has been increased to seven buildings in 1940 and the one graduate of 1890 to one hundred sixty in 1940.

Under the guidance of the boards of education, faculty members, and interested citizens of the community, the educational factor has received recognition and prospered equally with other community interests. The educational, social, and economic life of the community during this period greatly benefited by those persons who were a positive influence, and much pride may be found in the hearts of those who played their part. We earnestly hope that the next fifty years will be even richer in its contribution to the welfare of all in this community.

Superintendent

Dear "8" ball
Will I ever
see you hear. Luck.

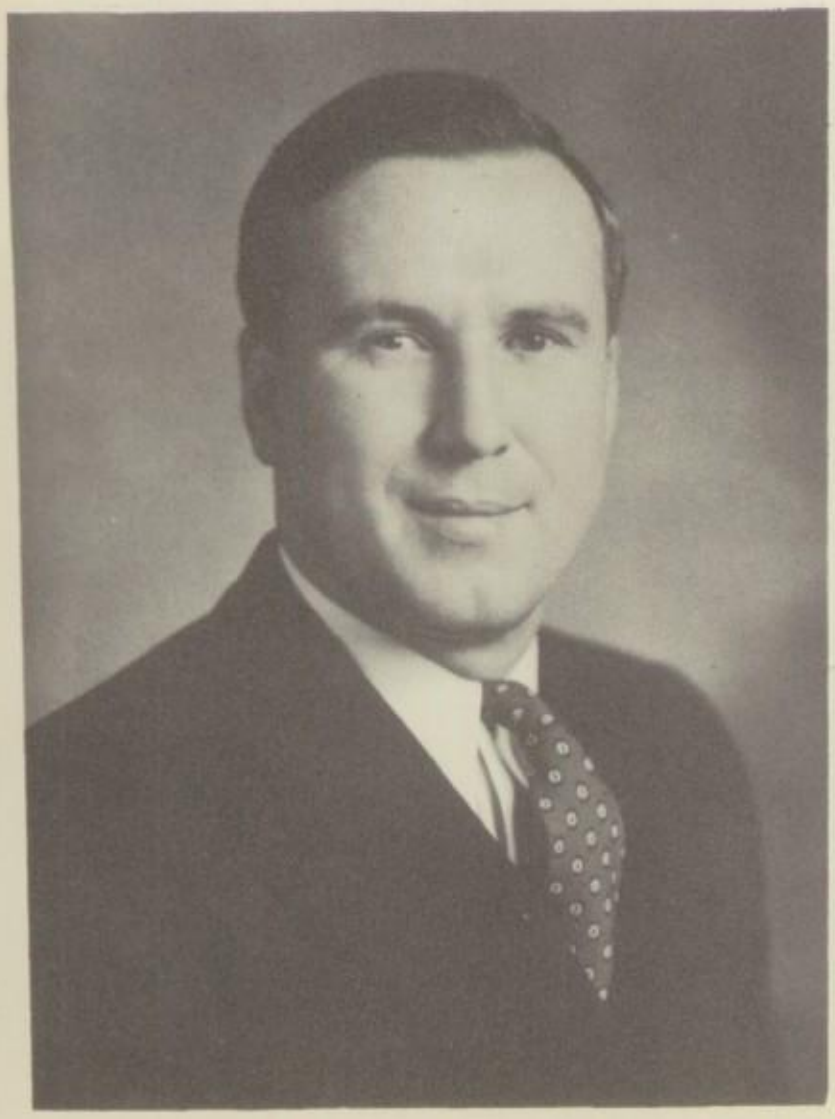
MR. H. C. WEINLICK, M.A.
Principal



The Class of 1940, about ready to pass on its achievements to the Juniors, is to be commended on its excellent ability to convert the breaks of life into advantages. I have enjoyed helping this fine group of boys and girls through three years of high school work. There have been ups and downs, but if it were not for these unpredictable things, it would be hard for you to fit into the plan of life when you graduate.

I hope your years of high school preparation have made you more conscious and more alert to what will be expected from you when you leave school. May good fortune and prosperity always accompany you.

Mrs. Oscar Moen, Mrs. Mabel Carr, T. J. Pattinson, J. M. Caldwell, R. J. Mueller, W. F. Kruschke, Ed. Swensen, Ernest Draheim, Dean Juday.

Under the advisorship of Miss Catlin, the Sophomores have had a very successful year. They have contributed a great deal in sports, music, and speech work and in April sponsored a party which was one of the most successful of all those held this year.

Although they are not responsible for entertainments such as are sponsored by the Juniors and Seniors, we know that next year they are going to contribute a great deal in keeping up the fine record that students of this high school have made.

DEBATE

On October 1, 1939, perhaps you noticed the call for debaters on the bulletin board. Did you know that 37 students reported? Out of those 37, 19 were chosen for the preliminary squad to debate on this year's question which was: "Resolved: That the Federal Government should own and operate the railroads."

From October 15 to December 10, a series of round-robin debates were held. On December 12 the inter-school squads were selected. The Affirmative were: Joseph Owens, Duane Lader, Helen Hartlett, Marguerite Olson, Wally Elkon, and Betty Roeder. The Negative were: Gilbert Anderson, James Meyer, Betty Schuelke, Sidney Mogan, Robert Friz, Kenyon Moyer, Betty Oestriech, and Raeburn Reardon. There were five other squads in the conference. Our squad met Tomahawk twice, Clintonville once, Medford twice, Merrill twice, and Phillips once.

On January 27 the final tournament team was selected:

Affirmative	Negative
Joseph Owens	Robert Friz
Duane Lader	Gilbert Anderson
Helen Hartlett	Raeburn Reardon

At the Stevens Point meet on February 2, Rhinelander won all of its debates, defeating Mosinee, Adams-Friendship, Birnamwood, Medford, Redgranite, and Port Edwards. On February 16 this same tournament team took part in the Sectional Tournament at Stevens Point.

Rhinelander High School owes a great deal to Mr. Froling for his fine work with the debaters and to the debaters for working so hard. Most of the debaters will be back next year to continue their work.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"A Voice in the Dark," an historical comedy in three acts was ably presented by members of the Senior Class on Friday evening, May 3. It was directed by Miss Young.

The plot in brief was as follows: At the Pine Tree Tavern in Boston, Samuel Adams met Paul Revere and other patriots to discuss the means of communicating with the Committees of Correspondence and furthering the cause of the Colonies in their struggle against encroachments by England. Martha Davy, comely, quick-witted, acted as secretary to Adams and secreted the correspondence from the Committees from 1773 to 1775. Richard Shirley, a British spy, and Captain Knox of the British army came to the inn to secure evidence against Adams and his confederates. Into the plot, too, came Dame Astra, and her daughter Constance, who sought a favorable marriage for the latter. Complications set in for Shirley when he fell in love with Martha and when upon being discovered by Constance taking letters from Martha's cache, Constance demanded a price for keeping quiet: marriage with Shirley. When the time came for Captain Knox to expose Adams's intrigues against the crown, Shirley, who had grown lukewarm in England's cause, turned patriot and turned his information to use by the colonists. Martha and Shirley were reconciled.

This play aimed at telling the events that lead to the Boston Tea Party and Paul Revere's Ride.

The play, at the time of writing, was cast tentatively as follows:

Theophilus Davy, the innkeeper. . . . . Russell Bastian
Livy, his wife. . . . . Dorothy Beveridge
Martha, their daughter. . . . . Mary Boelter
Lucy, a young neighbor. . . . . Betty Rolain
Beth, a young neighbor. . . . . Kathryn Koppa
Paul Revere, the Mercury of New England. . . . . Conrad Zander
Dame Astra, a wealthy matron. . . . . Madeleine Hansen
Constance, her daughter. . . . . Betty Hildebrand
Anne, another daughter. . . . . Anne Olson
Richard Shirley, a merchant's clerk. . . . . Robert Mitchell

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"THREE DAYS OF GRACIE," a three-act farce comedy, was well presented by the Junior Class on Friday, November 24. It was directed by Miss Young.

The story ran as follows: Miss Kate Waring, an old maid, who carried thrift to the extreme, bossed everyone around her and particularly her sister, Janet, who had possibilities if Kate had not been imposing invalidism upon her. Into this household came Phillipa, a cousin, and her roommate, Gracie, a plump scatterbrain, to spend a part of their spring vacation with Kate and what those girls did was a plenty! In short, they succeeded in almost wrecking the routine of the staid old Waring household. Out of the chaos Janet emerged as a very attractive woman, especially in the opinion of Dr. Cashion.

The characters were portrayed by the following:

Grace Warner, a college girl ..... Helen Taggart Phillipa Waring, her roommate ..... Dorothy Dobbe
Kate Waring, a stern old maid ..... Dorothy Sexton
Janet Waring, her sister ..... Doris Verage
Effie, the maid ..... Dorothy Tuhalski
Dr. John Cashion, the young doctor ..... Arthur Subert
Billy Jackson, a college boy ..... Pat O'Malley
Tommy Burns, his friend ..... Lester Marquardt
Bebe, a party guest ..... Catherine Anderson
Sallie, a guest ..... Eleanor Erickson
Charlotte, another guest ..... Bobbette Fisher
Lanny, a guest ..... Dick Panzer
Jim, another guest ..... Douglas McDonald
Messenger boy ..... Alfred DiGiacomo
Mr. Smith, a laborer
Stage Manager ..... Russell Bastian
Ushers ..... Junior Hi-Y Boys

FOOTBALL REVIEW

Rhinelander started the 1939 season with only one regular, Fritz Wells, back from last year's championship team. Mr. Leksell and Mr. Marshall again formed the coaching staff. Dick Marks, a senior, was elected captain of the team and Richard Mueller and Robert Pospychala served as managers.

A heavier, more experienced Wisconsin Rapids team defeated Rhinelander 13-0. The Hodags played exceptional ball the first half of the game. The light but fast Rhinelander line kept Rapids back in check for three quarters of the game. Rapids scored their first touchdown when Knutson went over from the 1-yard line. The try for the extra point was good and Rapids led 6-0. A few plays later Steinfeldt scored Rapids' second touchdown on a 13-yard run around his own left end. Bad breaks spoiled several scoring chances for the Hodags. A fumble on a low pass from center ruined their first chance after they had worked the ball down to the 5-yard line. A bad pass that went way over the intended receiver's head, when he was wide open in the end zone, spoiled another chance for a score.

An improved Rhinelander team won an exciting game from Merrill by the score of 14-13. Rhinelander went into the lead early in the first quarter when Poski took a lateral from Terzynski and raced 65 yards for a touchdown. Terzynski threw a short pass to Petta for the extra point. Merrill scored late in the second quarter after a 40-yard march. Silver scored from the 1-yard line. He then place-kicked the extra point to tie up the game at the half. Behrens scored Merrill's second touchdown on a short pass from English. The try for a point was no good. Moeller, a. Rhinelander back, scored what proved to be the winning touchdown late in the fourth period. A pass from Terzynski to Poski for the extra point was good and gave the Hodags the game 14-13.

A Rhinelander team that played good ball defeated a vastly underrated Nekoosa team 6-0. The Hodags took the lead early in the second quarter when Terzynski went over from the 5-yard line. An attempted pass for the extra point was smeared when the whole right side of the Nekoosa line broke through. Danfield, who put on a one-man show all during the game, did some fancy punting to keep Nekoosa deep in its own territory most of the game. One punt was downed on the Nekoosa 1-yard line and another went out of bounds on the Nekoosa 4-yard line. With only two minutes left in the game Nekoosa gained control of the ball on the Rhinelander 25-yard line. They tried to score by using a passing attack. Three passes were knocked down and the game ended before Nekoosa could try another play.

A Wausau team that did everything perfectly defeated Rhinelander 44-7. A few minutes after the opening kickoff, the outcome was apparent. Hirsch led the Wausau team in a series of line plays to give the Redbirds their first touchdown. Liljequist's place-kick for the extra point was good. Wausau kicked off but Rhinelander lost the ball on downs. Wausau scored again when Hirsch went around his own right end for 40 yards and a touchdown. Midway in the second period Wausau recovered a fumbled punt on the Hodags' 22. A short pass, Braatz to Hildensperger, was good for a touchdown. The try for the extra point went wide. Hirsch opened the second half for Wausau when he went around end for 27 yards and the touchdown. Wausau scored its sixth touchdown when Braatz went over from the 3-yard line. Krueger passed to Weinhauf for the last Wausau touchdown and he then passed to Liljequist for the extra point. Rhinelander scored when Terzynski passed to Petta for the touchdown. Terzynski then passed to Jaroski for the extra point.

A Rhinelander team that lacked the necessary scoring punch lost to Stevens Point by the score of 7-0. Three plays after the kickoff, the Hodags advanced the ball to the Point's 35 but they lost the ball when they fumbled. A few plays later Rhinelander brought the ball to the Point 10-yard line before they lost the ball on downs. Late in the second quarter the Hodags began another march going to Point's 12 before losing the ball on downs. Early in the third quarter Stevens Point marched to the Hodag 8-yard line and then a short pass was good for the touchdown, and what proved to be the winning score.

Rhinelander defeated Marshfield 13-6 to make the homecoming game a success. Marshfield went into the lead late in the second quarter when a blocked punt rolled into the end zone where it was recovered by Gandt, a Marshfield end. The try for the extra point went wide. Midway in the third period a Marshfield fumble was recovered by Gandt, a Marshfield end. Midway in the third period a Marshfield fumble was recovered by Petta. A pass was ruled complete on the Marshfield 49-yard line because of interference. Danfield went through tackle for 19 yards and a first down. Joe Champeau, a freshman back, then went around right end for 30 yards and a touchdown. A pass play failed on the try for the extra point. Late in the fourth period Marshfield, apparently anxious to settle for a tie, attempted to stall. This strategy failed because they were forced to kick on fourth down with only 11 seconds left to play. The punt was downed on the Marshfield 35-yard line. Marks passed to Guenther for a 12-yard gain. The Hodags tried the same play again and it was good for 23 yards and a touchdown. Boyer's attempt from placement went wide.

A fighting Rhinelander team lost to Antigo by the score of 19-0. Outweighed ten pounds to a man, the Hodags never had a chance to get started. Franz, Antigo fullback, scored their first touchdown on a line plunge. Fisher kicked the extra point to give Antigo a 7-0 lead. Later in the quarter a poor Rhinelander kick was downed on its own 10-yard line. A short shovel pass, Franz to Brandt, was good for Antigo's second touchdown. Fisher's kick went wide. A lateral pass, Franz to Fisher, was good for 41 yards and a touchdown. Pepper, Hodag center, blocked the try for the extra point. The game ended a few plays later with Antigo in possession of the ball.

BASKETBALL SUMMARIES

The Champion Rhinelander Hodags opened their defense of the Wisconsin Valley Conference Championship by taking a close one from Wisconsin Rapids at Rapids. The game was close all the way and had to go into an extra period before it was decided in favor of the Hodags, 36 to 35.

The Ironwood Red Devils came to Rhinelander to try to win their first game from the Hodags since the present series started between the two schools two years ago. They were unsuccessful, however, and the Hodags showed potential power in trouncing them 36 to 21.

You can't win every game you play, as the Hodags found out from Stevens Point in their second conference game. Rhinelander had a bad night of it and the snappy Pointers played smart ball all the way to win by a score of 35 to 28. This was the Hodags' first loss in 24 games, extending over a period of two years.

Rhinelander played host to Nekoosa's scrappy little team and snowed them under 55 to 16. The game was never in doubt and after solving Nekoosa's puzzling rotary offense, the Hodags scored almost at will.

The Wausau Cardinals, supposedly the "Big Boogy Man" of the conference, found out that though the Hodags lost one, they were by no means a "soft touch." The Wausau game was considered a crucial one, in that it would give an indication of how strong the Hodags were. It did and they did. The Hodags proved that they were still very much in the conference race by trampling Wausau's hopes 37 to 24. The game was the Hodags' last before the Christmas vacation.

Playing their first game after the mid-term vacation, the Hodags romped over Merrill to win by the decisive score of 40 to 18. Even though the Jays were playing on their home floor, they did not even come close and scored only 7 field goals during the whole game.

The Hodags made a successful week out of it by trimming the Tomahawk Hatchets, at Tomahawk, by a score of 35 to 23. Due to the small size of the Tomahawk gym the game was quite rough and it was only a 2nd period spurt which netted the Hodags 14 points while the Hatchets got only 3 which decided the game in their favor.

Marshfield traveled to Rhinelander, intent upon continuing in its giant-killing role, having knocked off Stevens Point to give the Hodags a share of the lead the week before. The Hodags showed them who was boss and sent them home on the short end of a 35 to 27 score.

The Hodags played host to Merrill after having trounced the Jays on their home floor on a previous occasion. After a landslide of points in the 2nd quarter, the game was never in doubt, ending 36 to 16 in favor of the Hodags.

The Wausau Cardinals entertained the Hodags, and handed them sole possession of first place by virtue of the 38 to 32 defeat tagged on them by the Hodags. The game wasn't really as close as the score might indicate as the Cardinals made about 10 of their points in the last quarter against Hodag reserves.

It seems that every time Rhinelander plays Antigo, a championship hangs in the balance. Such was the case when the two teams met for the first time of the season. Antigo was faced with the task of defeating the Hodags or allowing them to clinch their fifth straight conference championship. They did not possess enough power, however, and yielded to their traditional rivals by a score of 46 to 25.

For the second time in as many weeks the Rhinelander Hodags clashed with the Antigo Ants, this time at Antigo. The outcome of this game was of no less importance than that of the game of the previous week, in that a win would give the Hodags undisputed possession of the championship. The Hodags won after a hard, close battle by a score of 27 to 17 and so remained the "King-pin" of the conference.

The Rhinelander Hodags, champions of the Wisconsin Valley Conference, traveled all the way to Ironwood, Michigan, to show Ironwood, champions of the Northern Wisconsin-Michigan Conference, who was the toughest. The Hodags were, and not only won the game by a score of 47 to 32 but the approval of the crowd as well. To show their appreciation of the Hodags, a dance was tossed in their honor by Ironwood school officials.

For the second time in a week the Hodags took on outside conference champions and put them in their places. This time it was Eagle River, winner of the Northern Lakes Conference Championship. The game was played at Rhinelander and ended 54 to 29 in favor of the host team.

The Hodags played their last game before the home crowd on March 1, and handed the Tomahawk Hatchets a sound 50 to 22 trouncing. It was their final conference game and gave them a season's record of 11 wins and 1 loss in conference competition and 3 wins and no losses in non-conference competition.

The Rhinelander Hodags played their first game in the Regional tournament at Antigo and defeated Withee by a 40 to 4 score.

Playing in the second round of the Regional tournament, the Hodags handed Merrill a decisive 48 to 13 defeat and by so doing advanced to the finals.

Antigo vs. Rhinelander always seems to decide a championship and it did so again in the final game of the Regional tournament. The game was too close all the way and an extra period had to be played before the Hodags won out 36 to 31.

The Hodags opened their defense of the State High School Basketball Championship with a smashing 46 to 29 win over Delavan. The Hodags built up a big lead in the first half and then coasted in.

Platteville eliminated the Hodags from the state tournament by a 31 to 29 score. The game was slow most of the way and Platteville won by the use of a stall.

The Hodags have a five-year record of 84 wins and 9 losses.

CLASS HISTORY

We, the Class of 1940, entered our first year of high school work as Freshmen in 1936 at the Junior High School. During the year we gave a Barn Dance. Not so much was done by us, for we were just getting a start in our high school career.

The following year we entered as Sophomores in the Senior High School. Bill Stubbs was our leader. Our big event of the year was the Sophomore party. The party was carried out with the "circus" theme, the walls being decorated with various animals in cages and funny little clowns. The popular fad at that time, the "Dutch Treat Style," was carried out. This was the first time this idea had been used at school parties and it really proved quite entertaining.

Vacation came and rolled by and before we knew it, it was time for us to go back to school and enroll in our Junior year of work. That year Madeleine Hansen was our president. Two important events took place in our Junior year. The first was our class play, a delightful comedy, "Life Begins at Sixteen." The play was very well attended and is to be long remembered. Although our play was truly "swell," the crowning event of the year was really our Junior Prom. The theme of the Prom was "Anchors Aweigh" and the gym was cleverly decorated with whales swimming in the sea, boats, and sailors. A large boat was provided for the orchestra. Our pretty Prom Queen was Esther Schmelling and our handsome Prom King, Ray Terzynski. Our Prom was termed one of the best ever to be given.

Another vacation rolled by and again we entered high school, but this time as brave Seniors. Our able leader for this year was Anne Olson. We gave the first party of the year, "The Senior High Get-Together." A second party, a "Snow Frolic," was given after Christmas.

Another interesting event was the basketball tournament at Antigo. The regulars on the team were all seniors and displayed some fine ball playing. Our team won the regional tournament and thereby obtained another trophy for the expected trophy case for the Rhinelander High School.

During the year we presented a class play called "A Voice in the Dark." This year was a busy one for us. We had to arrange for commencement and class day exercises. Now that we are graduating and preparing to go out on a new sea of life, we leave all our happy days at Senior High School behind us, but there will remain with us always those fond memories of high school days.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1940, of the Rhinelander High School, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament in the manner following:

Individually, we make the following bequests:

David Ahles wills his 20-mile ride a day to Wally Elkon.

Dale Blumerich wills his tenor strains to Lloyd Belanger.

Dean DeCanter wills his naps in the third hour to Darrell Rude.

Jane Fengler wills her mother-of-pearl-plated guitar to Pat Boyer, to provide music for his singing.

Clarice Myers wills her shyness to Harriet Proft.

Anne Olson wills that baby pout to Bernadette Hanson.

Ruth Petey wills her constant boredom to Emily Frisch.

George Poski wills that wonderful line to 1941's glamour boy.

Wade Reid wills his joint partnership with Allan Wolfrom to Bud Musson and Tony Rabl.

Martha Salin wills that shy smile to "Pat" O'Malley.

Mary Etta Staley wills her talking in fourth period to whoever can talk as much or as fast.

John Taylor wills his trouble-making teasing to his brother, Gene Taylor.

Eloise Johnson and Merle Hulce will their quiet ways and nature to Bob Poski and Lyle Graef.

Kathryn Koppa wills her Scotch traits to Tommy O'Malley.

Gregory McElrone wills that grand title of "Mr." to Bob Bertrand.

James Pelletier wills his easy-going manners to Ray Lockland.

Shirley Gilman and June Friday will their frequent absences to Shirley Forsythe and Vera Shultz.

Marian Russell wills her "care-free-ness" to Laurraine Binnebose.

Dean Shultz wills his manly acts to Wally Jordan.

"Art" Sonsthagen wills his good studying habits to John Vancos.

Frank Tank wills his curly hair to Leo Cummings.

Lainys Turner wills that red hair and temper to go with it to Lois Taylor.

Dorothy Wendland wills her "pleasingly plump" stature to Evelyn Peterson.

Madeleine Hansen wills her sophisticated actions to Mavis Knutson.

Delores Anklam wills her friendly and saintly air to Helen Kelley.

Gaylord Brown wills his bashful manner to Bill Tillman.

Shirley Bellile and Elaine Carlson will their quiet studious natures to Nona Wubker.

Dale Danfield wills his place on the football and basketball teams to Fritz Wells.

Dorothy Farmen wills her intelligence to Shirley Hajenga.

Fred Meinecke wills his dramatic ability and happy care-free nature to Arthur Subert.

Judson Moeller wills his sarcasm and "fancy free" nature to Bill Lynn.

Milo Nimmer wills his devotion and interest in Fond du Lac to any boy who could be so faithful.

Delores Pecore wills her place in athletic club to Pat Thompson.

Everett Peterson wills his interest in Vernette Rhodes to whoever can take his place.

Fritz Pommerening wills his stature to Eddie McKenzie.

Paul Recha wills his talkative nature and place in the 3rd hour assembly to whoever Miss Van Patter thinks can take his place.

Collectively, we make the following bequests:

To the Juniors, we leave our class spirit, our dignity, and our beloved textbooks.

To the Sophomores, we leave our way with the teachers and our manners.

In witness whereof, we have set our hand this twenty-ninth day of May, nineteen hundred and forty.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year of 1950, as we entered one of the greatest attractions of all circuses, the fortune-telling booth, we noticed a turbaned Hindu who was seated at a small, curtained table. Each arrival experienced a new kind of feeling—one of vague uneasiness—for our surroundings were very strange to us. The room was illuminated by a light which we could not see; dark, heavy draperies hung on the silent walls and we saw a mysterious, round crystal ball in front of the Hindu.

"You are very brave, my friends," the Hindu murmured. "That is why the crystal is so clear tonight."

As we moved forward and peered into the ball, we saw everything we had wanted to know when we first came in.

Here is what the magic ball predicted:

Beulah Arnott, Fanchon Hayes and Adeline Janke are owners and operators of "The Bang 'Em and Bob 'Em Beauty Salon."

Dorothy Beveridge is head cashier in the First National Bank at Harshaw. "Bev" always did know how to handle money—remember Business Manager of the '40 Hodag?

Mildred Belanger is assistant teacher of book-keeping at the Toonerville Business College.

Patrick Davis—Pat's now teaching United States History in the local high school.

"Chuck" Fell now owns and operates "The Fell and Rose Again Bowling Alleys." Walt Sorenson, James Stokes, and George Poskie are pin-setters.

Esther Gnat and Phil Vielmetti's "The Bigger They Come, The Harder They Fall Roller Rink" is running close competition with "Ma and Pa's Coliseum."

John Lawson—"Johnnie" trouped for several years with "Barnum and Bailey" but he is now "calling for Philip Morris."

Mary Redfield—Wells, wells, Mary is the "scooper-upper" for "The Tatler" at Pelican Lake.

Contrary to popular opinion "Dick" Mueller has become a great mathematician and is now working on the weighty problem of how many times a day one would have to eat in order not to be hungry.

Betty Olson and Lucille Pecore are proprietors of a candy shoppe specializing in Finklestein's peanut brittle.

Don Michie—"Don" has taken over Don Ameche's contract with RKO. "Don" always wanted to be an actor.

Ray Chariton is a salesman for the Camels Company.

Joe Sum is now Father Sum and is in charge of a congregation at Summit Lake.

Margaret Brown is now Dean of Women at Madame Dubarry's School for Girls.

Esther Schmelling is the new "glamor" girl and is making big money modeling on Broadway.

Gladys Leith is private secretary for Johannes Trucking Service at Wausau.

Norman Peterson is chief type-setter with the "Daily Comet" of Newbold.

"Ace" Terzynski went to Poland years ago and has now settled down with a peaceful little blonde. "Ace" always was partial to blondes.

Arwed Barnowsky runs a bus line between Monico and Rhinelander. He brings kiddies to good old R. H. S. to absorb an education.

Elten Maloney is now concert solo violinist with the Bundy Philharmonic Orchestra and peddles papers on the side.

"Dick" McLaughlin has been competing in Olympics for the last several years.

Kenneth Mason's silvery tones are now coming to us over Station WXY as Jack Armstrong, the "All-American Boy."

Kay Karr is now touring the country with a "Slapstick Basketball Team."

Joyce Dobbs is now a promising reporter on the New York Times.

Conrad Zander and Edwin Perry are co-partners in the Pelican Lake Hotel.

Anna Tresness is on duty as a nurse, cheerfully helping patients in a large hospital, thus fulfilling her career.

Ray Warren is playing professional basketball at Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

Ray Johnson is working as an official basketball referee.

Paul Smith is running a dairy farm at Star Lake, near Eagle River.

Keith Pugh is making his living by hunting and trapping near the great city of Newbold.

"Gene" Huber and Russell Newman are now running a barber shop and giving fifty-cent hair cuts for two-bits.

Kermit Guenther has followed in the footsteps of his father and is now running a great lumber business.

Evelyn Gericke, a stenographer, is helping her sister through school.

Mary Alice Brunette is now the national president of "The Good Will Toward Teachers Association of the United States of America."

Since Starks is a cross-country stopping place, Clifford Ahlquist has a "Stop and See a Movie While I Fill Your Tank Garage."

The graduating class this year has many girls who want their hair set so they go to Myrtle Wilson's home—the only place where they can have their hair set the way they would like it.

I see George Drivas as a basketball coach—he always wanted to play basketball instead of doing his school work.

Along with that, I can see Albert Panko refereeing Drivas' games—Albert had a passion for arguing.

Marion Borda seems very busy these days—she is talking circles around her husband.

Here's a bit of news—Elsie Herman is a private secretary who inherited her boss's fortune, and Mildred Jacobs has won her boss's heart.

Joe Kuehn is in a high office with his feet on his desk. Joe received his father's position and is a "big-time" man now.

Here's a hard-working girl who clerks and takes night-school classes—her name is Elaine Peterson.

Joan Taylor is very sophisticated these days—she's a dramatic reader and critic for the "Saturday Evening Post."

Marcel Hansen is taking exercises to keep his youthful figure, and yes, he still breaks young maidens' hearts.

Alice Ruggles was destined to be a champion swimmer. She swam across the "back yard swimming hole" three times, only stopping long enough to change her fingernail polish.

Douglas Schultz is going bankrupt. He brings a "big red apple" to his blonde teacher at the University of Wisconsin everyday, but at night he brings orchids.

Theresa Vancos is an instructor in a girls' camp on a river near Rhinelander. A few miles down I can see a certain boys' camp; maybe that's why Theresa takes her charges for nature hunts every afternoon.

Apparently all the graduates haven't stayed in Rhinelander. Wava Counter and Garnet Forsman have recently moved to Antigo. Betty O'Brien has moved to the big city—she's married, you know.

Bernard Moes decided everyone could have a professional job so he is now the proud possessor of a successful chain of peanut stands.

Here's a boy who has graduated from one college but his heart still belongs to Mary—yes, it's Robert Plummer.

Richard Rayford is in his chemistry laboratory developing a serum "Small Men, Real He-Men Over Night."

Here's a fellow typing away in the Rhinelander News—it's Dale Carlson, who loves to write personal essays.

Raeburn Russell has an exclusive debate school for high school students so Mr. Froling won't have to work so hard with them.

Nadine Meyers and Dorothy Mode are dancing in the current "Follies of '50."

Ruth Cook and Joyce Sharpe are featured on Major Bowe's Amateur Hour.

Here's Rosemary Anderson, June Hazelquist, and Ethel Seidel clerking at Newberry's Dime Store.

Betty Rolain has recently written a book "How to Win and Influence Boy Friends While in High School."

Joe Phillips' manly figure has taken him far; he is now competing for the "National Life Guard" Title.

Alvina Moritz and Bernice Hollsted are now sophisticated school "marms" expanding their knowledge in the thriving metropolis of Parrish.

Arthur Cloutier joined the navy and is seeing the world with a "gal" in every port.

Don Lee has set up a laundry of his own at Boulder Junction.

Betty Barber and Geraldine Vandervest have both gone into secretarial work and both have very promising careers ahead.

The class of '40 is grateful to all those who helped us in any way with our annual. Especially do we wish to thank those who were so kind as to sponsor our 1940 HODAG.

Dear Mike
I don't know
I'll write but Best wishes
the Best Burglar

Well Mike,
I didn't know your name was Spike —— but I guess that's just John. We sure had fun in adv. math, or did we? Don't stay in old R. H. S. too long ——
Best of luck to you
you're a swell kid.
